

INDIAN KNOLL

Address Restricted, Paradise vicinity

This site along the Green River is one of the most fully documented and largest of the Late Archaic shell midden sites in the eastern United States. Excavation has yielded vital scientific information on the Archaic Indian population that once inhabited the site.